Victor McCauley, who has been spending the summer near Oakland, Md., returned yesterday evening and will enter Roanoke College to-day.

W. J. Black and wife and Miss Florence McKenney, of Richmond, after spending some time at Hotel Salem, left yesterday for Bedford City.

Dr. Henry Theodore Hildreth, the new professor of the department of ancient languages of Roanoke College, arrived on Saturday, and is boarding at Mrs. Ferguson's.

B. McIntyre, the physical director at Roanoke College, has returned, and will put the boys in training at once. He has established a "diet" table, at which all the footballists will take their meals.

Mrs. B. M. Otton, who has been visiting Mrs. Davis Ayers, on Main street, will leave to-day for Bedford Alum Springs, and will remain about three weeks. She will return then and organize a class in elocution.

About fifty boys who expect to attend Roanoke College arrived in Salem yesterday afternoon on the 4:30 train. It was estimated that there are over one hundred students in Salem yesterday evening and fully fifty or seventy-five are expected to arrive to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson, who have been staying at Hotel Salem for the past two months, returned yesterday to their home in Northampton, Mass., with the view of making arrangements for their return to Salem to make this their permanent home.

A mass meeting of citizens will be held in the town hall Friday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of discussing local option. The meeting will be addressed by Dr. L. G. Broughton, of Roanoke city. Music will be furnished by the Salem Silver Cornet Band.

D. B. Strouse and wife, returning from a business trip of some weeks to Europe, arrived home this morning. Their stay in Europe included a visit to Bristol, London, Paris and Havre.

Owing to the difficulty in getting steamer accommodations this time of the year, when so many Americans are coming home, Mr. and Mrs. Strouse were necessitated coming from Havre to Quebec, thence to New York, where they arrived on Saturday by steamer La Gasconne.

A gloom was cast over Salem when the sad intelligence of the death of Miss Mary Gray Chapman was made known. She was the only daughter of Mrs. Orlando B. Chapman, who resides in West Salem. Miss Chapman was taken ill with fever about four weeks ago, and despite the untiring efforts of her physicians to restore her to health was forced to yield to the unrelenting hand of death. She was 17 years of age and a member of the Presbyterian Church. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. K. Bridges yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the above-named church, and interment was made in East Hill Cemetery.

The following business was transacted in the Roanoke county court yesterday: On motion of Chas. Owens the estate of Alexander Owens, deceased, was committed to the sheriff for administration. The case of the commonwealth vs. Isham Hairton for the larceny of a coat was heard before a jury, who returned a verdict of "not guilty." The special grand jury returned the following indictments: Commonwealth vs. Paulina Smith, for selling liquor without license, "true bill." The one vs. Geo. Dandridge for the same offense was returned not a true bill. The case of commonwealth vs. Perry Hairton, charged with larceny of corn, was heard before a jury, who returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his fine at $5.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c.
